

Join Senator Bryant Richardson on Friday, November 17, at Janosik Park

Help me continue to work for you

For the past nine years I have worked in the Senate to bring about changes to benefit the citizens of Delaware. I will be making my re-election campaign announcement on Friday, Nov. 17, at 10 a.m. in the Janosik Park, 200 Front Street, Laurel. I hope to see you there.

In my service as Senator from the 21st District, I have:

- Kept my promise to vote against tax increases.
- Made protecting the 2nd amendment a priority.
- Supported efforts to increase funding for police and corrections officers.
- Voted for increased benefits for our veterans.
- Passed legislation to combat human trafficking.
- Authored a resolution to instruct our youth toward drug-free lifestyle choices.
- Authored a bill to restrict the overreach of the governor following an emergency.
- Obtained funding for the Home of Hope, an addiction rehab center for women.
- Introduced Fairness in Women's Sports legislation.
- Introduced a US Energy Independence Resolution.
- Fought for Parental Rights in education.
- Been a leading voice defending the dignity of life.
- Supported legislation to protect children from abuse.

My commitment is to honor God, protect life and preserve liberty for as long as the great people of Delaware give me the honor to serve.
